SEABROOK HOUSE SPONSORS RECOVERY DOCUMENTARY FILM

Seabrook, NJ— Seabrook House is proud to join the Council of Southeast Pennsylvania, Inc. and PRO-ACT in sponsoring the local presentation of the film, The Anonymous People.

The Anonymous People is a documentary about the 23.5 million Americans living in long-term recovery, and the emerging public recovery movement that will transform how alcohol and other drug problems are dealt with in our communities.

“The story of ‘The Anonymous People’ is shared by citizens, corporate executives and celebrities who are stepping forward to help support others struggling with addiction by sharing their personal experience,” said Ed Diehl, President of Seabrook House. “This film documents the passionate public recovery movement that looks to change the perception of recovery. As someone who has been open about my own recovery, I am excited to see the film and have Seabrook House be a sponsor of the local preview.”

The documentary presentation is being shown across the country throughout the spring and will be in the area on Thursday, May 23rd, 2013 at Holy Family University, ETC Auditorium, 9801 Frankford Avenue, Philadelphia. The film will start at 7:00pm. VIP reception tickets and general admission tickets are still available.

Please visit <http://www.councilsepa.org/events/the-anonymous-people/> for tickets.
